TERM 1, WEEK 8

I hope everyone had a wonderful Labour Day long weekend! Fun Fact: the Labour Day public holiday commemorates the granting of the eight-hour working day for Australians and recognises workers' contributions towards the nation's economy. I know many parents work more than 8hrs per day and hopefully this public holiday came at the right time to slow down and spend some quality time with the family.

NAPLAN begins on Wednesday and a huge thank you must go to Miss Cooke who has led the organisation of our learners, timetables, registration and resources.

We have a number of CES Ltd staff working with us on site this week. Georgia Donat (Speech therapist) will be in on Tuesday as will Bernadette Shiels (Learner Diversity). Bernadette has taken over from Joy Ready (whilst Joy is on leave) and will work with staff at Tuesday's staff meeting around our NCCD funded learners and processes. Steve Hicks is in on Wednesday to provide Pastoral Wellbeing support.

We look forward to celebrating St Patrick's Day as well as the Cohuna Show on Friday!

Take care and God bless.

Jarrod Mullavey (Principal)

A PRAYER

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Pippa

This week in the classroom we have been starting to copy our persuasive planners into a persuasive text. For the art show at the Cohuna show, we have water paints, oil pastels, and all different types of colouring/drawing supplies.

In our maths we have been revising our subtraction and rounding.

Millie

On Tuesday this week I got to school, got unpacked and went outside to play, and then the bell rang. We went inside and read our books. We had wellbeing with Miss Fletcher and Mrs Mathers. We had our fruit then we played a game on how to work together in a group and we got lollys!!

Jensen:

At the start of the week we did compound sentences in reading. We also did math, and we started our artwork for the Cohuna show.

Marley

My favorite part of the week was doing band and hanging out with friends. Week seven was only four days long! And it continued with a four day weekend.

Jimmy:

This week went really well. Music went really well and so did math. Reading is good and so is writing.
